DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR YOUR BOOKCLUB OR MEETING

- 1) Going back as far as you can remember, maybe even before you could speak many words, what were your experiences with God?
- 2) Who introduced the “concept” of God to you? What were you told about God?
- 3) How did what you were told make you feel? Did it align with your own impressions of God?
- 4) How are you connected to God?
- 5) When did you first begin to question your own beliefs about God? Was there a catalyst?
- 6) How does science fit in with your spiritual beliefs? How do your spiritual beliefs fit in with what you know about science?
- 7) Before reading What is God? did you notice that life seemed to be filled with unexplained paradoxes? How did you reconcile these paradoxes?
- 8) How do you define evil?
- 9) Do the metaphors of the Garden of Eden, the Two Trees in the Garden, and Adam and Eve feel like they make more sense now?
- 10) Have you had moments when you've transcended thoughts, the illusion of separation, and/or had out of body experiences?
- 11) Who is in charge of the Universe, our world, you?
- 12) How has your understanding of God changed since reading this book?

TESTIMONIALS

"I have read more books than I can count...I have been inspired by most of the books I have read but I need not search anymore because What is God? Rolling Back the Veil is by far the best out there."

~ Harry Shaw, Author of Confronting Demons

"...profound, complex and wonderful book—having finished it, I am now starting at the beginning again. Possibilities are infinite, love is total."

~ Sarah Coles, Author of Life, the Universe &
Gardening
